Profile

I'm a Front-End Web Developer passionate about building scalable, high performance web and mobile applications using React, Redux, TypeScript, Angular, Vue.js, and React Native. I enjoy creating new features, optimizing performance, and improving user experiences, and I also have some experience with PHP backend development. I hold Meta React Native and Harvard CS50 certifications, and I'm always eager to learn, collaborate, and deliver solutions that truly help users

Professional Experience

Intern Web Developer, BukyTalk, Istanbul/Turkey
